MEDICOLEGAL DETAILS

Background

I am a practising Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgeon based at the University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff. My practice includes a busy acute trauma commitment, which involves management of all grades of soft tissue and bony injuries. The University Hospital of Wales is a busy, Level 1 Trauma Centre and I sub-specialise in dealing with complex trauma, pelvic and acetabular fractures and provide a tertiary referral service for both acute trauma and post-traumatic reconstruction. Additionally I have a major general orthopaedic commitment at Llandough Hospital with a special interest in hip and knee arthroplasty. I have numerous publications relating to trauma and orthopaedics in peer review journals.
